OUR INSPIRATION

It is our desire to dedicate the '57 ANCHOR to one we think well deserves this honor. The enthusiastic ideas you suggested have made it possible for us to plan many successful activities. Your guidance and deep interest in us have helped us to feel secure during our high school years. In addition, your cheerful attitude, vivacious personality, and dignity have made you the most likeable sponsor a class could have. Therefore, Miss Moneda Key, for being our inspiration, the class of 1957 dedicates this year's ANCHOR to YOU.

Faculty

The old Jamestown church provides a picturesque background for Gloria Tart and Whit Hancock.

Our Governor and Deputy-Governors

MR. GEORGE J. McINTOSH

Our principal, Mr. George J. McIntosh, supervises the general administration of Newport News High School. He plans the curriculum and sees that the necessary changes are made, approves all school activities, and has charge of planning all functions concerned with Newport News High School. He is admired and respected by students and faculty members because of his ability as a leader, friend, and excellent administrator.

MISS ETHEL M. GILDERSLEEVE

Miss Ethel M. Gildersleeve has many capacities, besides being Dean of Girls. She is a friend to all requiring individual guidance and her deep understanding and patience make it easy for students to confide in her. Being advisor to the Student Council also requires much of her time and patience.

MR. THOMAS O. KEESEE

Our assistant principal, Mr. T. O. Keesee, is a well-known person around Newport News High School. He is always busy working out school schedules, and handling disciplinary problems. His sparkling humor and friendly personality make him a good friend to the students here at Newport News High School.

Were Supported by the London Company

MRS. DAVID DICK
President of the Newport News High School P.T.A.

DR. R. O. NELSON

Dr. R. O. Nelson, the school superintendent, efficiently carries out the administrative duties of the school system. With careful consideration and planning of the yearly budget and construction of schools, he insures a smooth operation of the educational system. As a Christian gentleman, his quiet manner leaves a lasting impression upon both the faculty and students.

A group of teachers seem to be enjoying their lunch in the school cafeteria. Here they are able to relax for half an hour and chat informally.

In her free period we find Miss Lane checking test papers, one phase of her day's work. Judging by her smile, some lucky student made an A.

Just as they do every morning before school begins, the teachers are getting the daily bulletin and other notices from their boxes in the office. Mrs. Hamilton, Miss Kelly, and Miss Lane are eager to examine the contents of their boxes.

Senior

Beverley Powell and Jerry Saunders are flanked by the Jamestown settlers' ships, the "Godspeed" and the "Discovery."

We Present Our Leading Settlers

Advised by His Elders

MR. THOMAS M. ROBINSON

My sincere best wishes to each of you as you complete one phase of your life and enter another.

As I believe most of you know, I have enjoyed my association with you in the past year. I have considered it a privilege to serve as your sponsor.

I will not attempt to give you advice since there are others more capable of this than I. Instead, I wish for each of you a full and happy life with the hope that as you complete each task you will emerge a better person by having attempted it.

Sincerely,

MONEDA E. KEY

Congratulations Class of 1957! I am grateful and honored that you selected me to serve as your sponsor.

You have reached an important plateau of your life. There are other plateaus that must be conquered, but you will not have as much help in scaling these new heights. You alone will determine your final place in life.

There is no set formula for living, but such things as courage, hard work, honesty, humility and a belief in God are necessary for a successful life.

America is still the land of opportunity. "Seek and ye shall find." Do not hesitate to stand up for truth and right and oppose that which you believe to be wrong. Live life to its fullest, and "This above all, to thine own self be true."

THOMAS M. ROBINSON

Our Memory of the Past Experience

Will Always be Cherished

Dino Vretos says,

rry Grogan, Senior President, transfers the cap and gown to next year's Class President, Jack Tesh.

Mr. Chambers, basketball coach, discussed the coming game in one of our many assemblies.

The Hall of Fame posed briefly to have their picture taken.

ne Lee Lillaston accepts her diploma with pride from Mr. McIntosh, Principal.

"It's a proud day when you have your diploma and look toward the future," says Sonja Settles, and Charles Allen.

"It certainly was a thrill to get our new pennants," exclaims Judy Abbott.

Underclassmen

Wendell Williamson and Charlotte Edmonds stroll through the lovely veranda at the Jamestown Festival.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Made up of representatives from each homeroom and guided by Miss Ethel Gildersleeve, the Student Council appropriates money for school functions, sponsors dances, and elects representatives to S. C. A. Conferences. This year special stress was made in getting better participation on Council projects and in promoting a friendly atmosphere throughout the school.

Student Body Officers — Our school Government leaders preside over Student Council meetings and assemblies and represent the school to other schools and the community.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board — Heads of the Student Council committees, student body officers, and representatives from each class, who make up the Executive Board, serve as a planning group for the Student Council. They also nominate the Honor Council representatives and plan various assembles.

Looking a bit scared, the mice file in as the rest of the students look on, remembering their Mouse Assembly.

Judge John Mitchell and Defense Attorney Skippy Weitz, hand out citizenship papers to the eager mice.

Barbara Ellis may be one of the smallest of the mice, but she made a big hit when she performed in the Mouse Assembly.

Trying to show that the mice are worthy of citizenship, a trio of girls display their talent before the judge and jury.

Of the youngest settlers

Need any help around school? Bill Martin, our friendly custodian, is the man to do it.

Accidents do happen, as Judy Lamberth found out! However, the school nurse, Mrs. Williams, is always around to help as Gail Gaskins and Shirley Smith can see.

Three of our maids paused a moment from their busy routine of dusting and mopping to have their picture taken.

From early morning until evening, Roy Savage is always doing his best to keep the school in tip-top shape.

We observed festivals

Skippy Weitz, president of the Key Club, which sponsored Safety Week, points to one of the many colorful posters around the school during this week.

Helping to make National Education Week a success were: (left to right) Helen Flax, Ann Lee Lillaston, and Lucy Kinlock, who are members of the Future Teachers Club of our school.

Betty Jean Dail, Jack Tesh, Jeanette Fowler, Whit Han cock, and Patsy Floyd are wearing the big smiles that worthem the titles of the friendliest Typhoons during Friendly Typhoon Week.

To better our social life

Mr. Harry Shoff, Director of the Boys' Club, spoke on "Honor, Your Passport to Success" at the fall Honor Assembly.

Gail Morrison, the Head Registrar (Center), Whit Hancock and Frances Lawson, assistants, are busy getting ready for Election Week.

Working hard? Skippy Weitz, chairman of the House and Grounds Committee and Gail Morrison, assistant chairman, begin work on cleaning up the school for their part in Clean-Up Week.

Dick Wynne and Miss Gildersleeve are shown talking over Brotherhood Week and looking at one of the posters to be used.

Graciously we gave thanks

George Hondros' speech to us for the Thanksgiving Assembly about the war-torn country in which he had lived was very inspiring to everyone.

Santa Claus, played by Dino Vretos, surveys the list left to him by the children in the Christmas Assembly.

The music at the Christmas Assembly was provided by the Senior Chorus who sang a few numbers from the "Messiah."

Nancy Keesee, Evelyn Casey, Beverley Powell, and Pat Helmick read the scripture in the Thanksgiving Assembly, greatly moving all who heard them.

Santa Claus brought four marching soldiers and a dancing doll to the Christmas Assembly. They are Rodney Wyatt, Jesse Kersey, Al Creal, Joe Carney, and Melinda Walker.

During the holiday season

Needing some help in figuring out credits for college, Marcia Hoffman, Joan Burcher and Miss Kelly are seen talking it over.

"Who's Next?" is probably the most common question in a group like this from Mr. Wheary. He is filling out late slips for Thelma Spade, Joan Williams, and Nancy McCormick.

Recognition was given

John Wiedman, Pat Branch and Steve Parianous are shown in a scene from the Senior Tournament Play, "Quiet Please."

Those happy smiles are from Jerry Grogan, the winner of the American Legion award, and Nancy Keesee, the DAR award winner, as they are being congratulated by Mr. McIntosh.

Thelma Spade, our lovely Band Sweetheart, is shown receiving her bouquet of roses from Drum Major Leonard Dunford.

GOALPOST GOSSIP

The Newport News High School gold and blue football team opened their 1956 season with 13 lettermen, but the gridiron fortunes were dark because of Newport News High School playing the toughest schedule in Group I scholastic circles. For the first time in over 20 years, Newport News High School opened its season away from home tying Manchester 0-0. The Typhoon, in its first home game, defeated the Princess Anne Cavaliers 25-6, gaining revenge for the previous season's loss. The Gold and Blue eleven then were defeated by E. C. Glass 25-12. The Gold and Blue gridironers then handed Maury a 13-7 loss. The following week, the powerful Woodrow Wilson Presidents handed the Typhoon a 39-6 shellacking. The Warwick Farmers tied the Typhoons the following weekend in a 6-6 game which saw Warwick, the favorite team, score a touchdown in the waning moments to tie the gallant underdog Typhoons. The Newport News warriors then suffered a 27-12 defeat at the hands of undefeated Norview. They then lost a 12-6 game to the Granby Comets. Again the N.N.H.S. eleven roared back to defeat powerful Cradock 21-20 and played their arch rivals, Hampton, to a 0-0 standstill in their 59th annual Turkey Day Classic.

The record of three wins, four losses, and three ties is not a true indication of the ability of this season's squad. The Gold and Blue Typhoons played eight of the toughest games in the state and gave a highly creditable performance in each of

The experts said that if Newport News had had a few breaks and had not had injuries to key players, the Gold and Blue might have had one of the best records in the state. Coach J. C. Range and Captain Skippy Weitz gave a highly inspirational leadership to this team. Skippy Weitz was awarded the Julian Condon Trophy for the cutstanding player on the

the Julian Gordon Trophy for the outstanding player on the

This year's team will go down as one of the best defensive teams Newport News High School has had in many years. From the appearance of this year's squad, it looks as if Newport News will soon regain its position as a Group One football power.

Here are our two leaders, Captain Bucky Keller, "Outstanding Scholastic Basketball Player of Virginia," and Coach Bill Chambers, one of the best coaches in Virginia and the Peninsula's "Man of the year in Sports."

COURT CAPERS

There is an old saying that lightning never strikes twice, but the Golden Typhoon Cagers of Newport News High School disproved this saying by winning their second consecutive Group One State Championship. The Court Wizards of Coach Bill Chambers compiled an amazing 21-1 overall season record. The Typhoon team won 19 games and lost 1 during the regular season. They compiled a 19-1 season record in district play. They established a fabulous 21-game winning streak after suffering an early season loss to Wilson. They also annexed their second consecutive Eastern District Championship and their second consecutive Eastern Tournament Championship.

Among the other records established by this team are that they tied Roanoke High School for winning the most state championship.

tied Roanoke High School for winning the most state championships — 8. Also for making the finals in 9 out of 10 state championships.

The Golden Typhoon's record is more amazing when you stop and realize that Coach Chambers had only one regular back from last year's championship team. The only returnee was Captain Bucky Keller. Together with Bucky, Mr. Chambers took Kenny Roberts, Bobby Jones, Donald Ellis, and Jack Tesh and moulded them into one of the greatest defensive and offensive five that has ever been seen in Group Scholastic Court circles. This team showed poise, rebounding strength, and determination to win that would not usually be expected from an inexperienced team such as this.

Coach Chambers has guided the Typhoons for three seasons and in that stretch has compiled a phenomenal 67-8 record which truly places him among the best scholastic coaches in the country. His team showed so much poise and polish in the State Group One tournament that the Golden Typhoon waltzed through the tournament games. Coach Chambers' Court Magicians were paced by Captain Bucky Keller. Keller proved himself to be one of the greatest all-round basketball players ever to be see in Virginia. This was proven by his being selected the best hig school basketball player in Virginia. Center Don Ellis' rebounding and shooting promoted the Typhoon cause greatly. In Jac Tesh, Newport News High School had one of the best ba handlers and floor men in the state.

No coach could ask for two finer guards than Kenny Robert and Bobby Jones. Despite their lack of height, as basketba players go, they proved themselves excellent rebounders, master ball hawkers, and brilliant play makers. These five boys players and Bobby Jones. Despite their lack of height, as basketba players go, they proved themselves excellent rebounders, maste ball hawkers, and brilliant play makers. These five boys pluthe capable and valuable work of reserves Billy Bradley, Alle Foster, Jimmy Shires, Roger Heflin, Harry Conn, Bill Queens berry, Jimmy VanNoy, and Don Hardy were the contributin factors to the Typhoon success.

The Golden Typhoon loses only one regular — Bobby Jones and two reserves — Jimmy Shires and Bill Queensberry from the talented squad.

Along quarterback row, the experts are predicting that wit a year's experience these boys will go on to win their thir consecutive State Group One basketball championship. The Typhoon team received many individual honors. Bucky Keller mad the All-State Group One team, All-Eastern District team, an also the most valuable player in both the Group One Tournament and the Eastern District Tournament.

ment and the Eastern District Tournament.

Don Ellis, also, made the All-Group One Tournament team an Kenny Roberts was chosen the sixth best player in the Grou One Tournament, just missing making the All-Tournament team The Penn Williams trophy for the outstanding player was awarded to Bucky Keller. The entire team was given Star Championship letters and State Championship jackets by the school. This team can be summed up by Coach Chamber statement in letter assembly, "They were great!"

THE CINDER TRAIL

The cinder thin-clads of Newport News High School are expected to again be one of the state's top track aggregations. The track team this year is coached by Coach Julius Conn and Coach Charles Nuttycombe. Ivan Goldberg and Jerry Saunders, Co-captains of the 1957 track team, are two of the key men around which the coaches have built the team. Other outstanding performers are Virgil Meares in the mile, Skippy Wietz in the hurdles, Raoul Weinstein in the 440, Henry Goad in the high jump, Dan Outland in the shotput, and David Wittan in the discus. Jerry Saunder's specialty is the two hurdle races, while Goldberg doubles in the 100 and 220. As the 1957 ANCHOR was on the presses, the track squad was preparing to enter the Tidewater and Eastern District meets. Up to press time of the yearbook, the track squad had won its first five dual meets in a row.

TOUCHING ALL BASES

The 1957 baseball season was just getting underway as the 1957 ANCHOR went to press. This year's squad is composed of ten lettermen with promising juniors and sophomores. Head coach, Jack Powers and assistant coach, Pete Robinson were confident that they could have a good season if the home diamond was ever fixed up so that they could practice on it. From the first few games played, it looked as if Newport News High School would be a real contender for the Eastern District title. With each game the team gained more experience and polish. Bobby Jones was elected captain of the 1957 baseball squad. Some of the outstanding members of this year's squad are Tommy Morgan, Dick Wynne, Phil Collins, Jimmy Shires, Larry Ruhland, David Jones, and Bobby Jones.

These four smiling ladies are the brain trusts of our Girls Phys. Ed. Department. Here, Mrs. Masters, Mrs. Sanders, Miss Seats and Miss Wente, laugh at something done during one of their classes.

Here's the Hockey Team which had a good season. They are left to rgiht: Lolly Wynne, Porter Phillips, Carol Wornom, Marie Swan, Agnes Dick, Ann Cain, Adrienne Price, Bitsy Lee Heath, Louise Powell, Peggy Taylor.

Performing during the Apparatus Club meeting are Jean Tesh, Mary Ann Meares, Phyllis Wiggins, Carolyn Jones, and Valiery Hartsell.

Performing on the mats are members of the Tumbling Club. They are showing the skills they learned in class and are giving you a demonstration of the fun they have in their meetings. Those performing in the foreground are: Charlotte Rawls, Carolyn Ellis, Carolyn Jones, Valiery Hartsell, Mary Patrick, Courtney Kerman, Ruby Forbes, Linda Powell, Mary Ann Meares, Sandra Nesbitt, and Patsy Fiest.

Well-balanced sports program

How fast can you run the 50-yd. dash? Norma Wilson, Elaine Ferrell, Andra Bost, and Kitty Hawley are set to go and they seem to be enjoying it. They are particitating in one of the many fall and spring outdoor activities.

Not only the boys have excelled in basketball; these girls are the all-stars of the Wednesday afternoon games. They are, kneeling: Barbara Morris, Judy Harrison, Gloria Tart, Lolly Wynn, Peggy Taylor, and Faye Allred. Standing are: Kitty Hawley, Belvie Settles, Ruby Phillips, Dorothy Jackson, Claudia Steele, Andra Bost, and Peggy Dail.

This is the Volleyball Team who had a victorious season. They are kneeling left to right: Sharron Wanderer, Faith Deament, Kathy Roane, Judy Harrison, Rose Manning, Shirley Smith, and Lolly Wynne, standing are Barbara Morris, Marie Swann, Kitty Hawley, Linda Powell, Ruby Phillips, Belvie Settles, Agnes Dick, Peggy Dail, and Kay Elmore.

Grace is being developed through modern dance. These girls are demonstrating the fundamentals they have learned during the spring.

Our Junior Varsity Hockey Team has worked hard to develop skills to make them worthy of the Varsity Squad next year. They are, first row: Kay Davis, Linda Powell, Carolyn Jones, Peggy Dail, and Ruby Phillips. Second row: Courtney Kerman, Barbara Wolf, and Jean Tesh. Third row: Mary Johnson, Captain; and Gloria DeMoss. Standing: Aretie Gallins.

These Dawn Lovelies always personify that fresh, well-groomed, sophisticated look. These girls achieve that appearance because they know that they can depend upon Dawn's excellent and efficient laundry to keep their clothes fresh and neat.

When these lovely lasses are entertaining their beaus and company they know that their home will always be clean and attractive because of Dawn's excellent dry cleaning of linens and home furnishings. These eight young ladies are thankful for Dawn's efficient and varied services.

Congratulations
